And Halfway Up the Hill, They Started Back.

The Markets

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, July 31.—Fear that because of the war there would be a terrific squeeze today in the delivery of July wheat turned out to be misleading. Wheat sold off sharply from the outset, starting 1-1/2c to 4-1/2c down and continuing to fall until the decline reached 6-1/2c, after which there were moderate rallies.

Corn, like wheat, tended downward, opening prices which varied from 1c decline to 1-7/8c advance were followed by a general fall in some cases to 4 cents, but with some upturns later.

Oats held comparatively steady. For the most part declines did not exceed 1-1/2c.

Provisions were only traded in moderately. There was decided downward tendency in sympathy with grain.

Closing prices:

Wheat—July, 88 1/4c; Sept., 88 3/4c; Corn—July, 71c; Sept., 69 1/2c; Oats—July, 54 1/2c; Sept., 52 1/2c; Pork—July, 22 1/2c; Sept., 22 1/2c; Lard—Sept., 29 1/2c; Oct., 29 1/2c; Hides—Sept., 11 1/2c; Oct., 11 1/2c.

LIVESTOCK.

Chicago Livestock.

Chicago, July 31.—Receipts 12,000; dull. Bulk, $8.60@9.00; light, $8.60@9.10; mixed, $8.45@9.10; heavy, $8.30@9.00; rough, $8.30@8.45; plus, $7.40@8.90.

Cattle—Receipts 1,500; steady. Steers, $7.50@10.00; steers, $6.40@8.40; stockers and feeders, $5.50@6.00; cows and heifers, $3.75@9.15; calves, $7.50@11.25.

Sheep—Receipts 7,000; steady. Sheep, $5.15@5.85; yearlings, $5.60@6.50; lambs, $6.00@8.10.

Kansas City Livestock. Kansas City, July 31.—Hogs—Receipts 1,500; lower. Cattle—Receipts 700; steady. Sheep—Receipts 1,000; strong.

Metal Market Closed. New York, July 31.—The New York metal exchange was closed today until Tuesday.

Stock Exchange Closed. San Francisco, July 31.—The stock and bond exchange here was closed today.

Cotton Condition. Washington, July 31.—The condition of the growing cotton crop of the United States on July 31 was 74.4 per cent of a normal, compared with a ten year average of 80 per cent.

No Demand for Hides. London, July 31.—At the Cape of Good Hope and Natal sheepskin sale today, 350,380 skins were offered and only 78,380 were sold. There was no demand from the continent and prices realized were 5d to 6d lower; which was paid by the home trade for the small lots sold.

WAR

closer to the German frontier than six miles.

The French foreign office officials were considerably more pessimistic today, because as they explained the gravity of the situation was increasing with the lapse of each day. At the same time it was said that it must not be assumed that all hope of a peaceful solution had vanished. France, it was said, will not mobilize her army until after Germany has done so.

EFFORT TO BLOW UP

FRENCH RAILWAY TUNNEL.

Lezay, France, July 31.—A supposed attempt to blow up the Chaffert tunnel of the Eastern railroad was made today. Three persons in an automobile with a loaded case seemingly containing explosives approached the tunnel and paid no attention to his challenge. He fired and they turned and fled.

STEAMSHIP COMPANIES

PUT RATES TO LIMIT.

London, July 31.—The steamship companies which yesterday were booking passages sailing before the annual exodus at minimum rates, today raised their prices to the maximum, although they assured intending passengers that British, French and Dutch steamers were not likely to be affected by anything that might occur.

AUSTRIAN GUARDS REPEL

SERBIAN COUNTER ATTACK.

Vienna, July 31.—Austrian frontier guards today repelled a strong attack by Serbians near Klotieva on the Bosnian frontier without suffering loss. The Serbians lost one officer and 22 men.

American Officers Ordered Home.

Geneva, Switzerland, July 31.—Several American naval officers on leave in Switzerland were recalled today on orders from Washington.

The Swiss government has ordered a partial mobilization and the troops are ready to defend the neutrality of Swiss territory.

First Spy Arrested.

Altenstein, Germany, July 31.—A Russian spy was arrested here today. He is said to belong to the St. Petersburg military intelligence department.

LEGAL NOTICE

Following is the text of amendments proposed to the constitution of New Mexico, which are to be voted on at the coming general election in November:

Joint Resolution No. 12.

Joint Resolution providing for the Amendment of Article VIII. of the Constitution of the State of New Mexico, Entitled "Taxation and Revenue." S. Sub. S. J. R. No. 12; Filed March 15, 1913. Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of New Mexico, That Article VIII. of the Constitution of the State of New Mexico, entitled "Taxation and Revenue," be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

Article VIII.

Taxation and Revenue.

Section 1. Taxes levied upon tangible property shall be in proportion to the value thereof, and taxes shall be equal and uniform upon subjects of taxation of the same class.

Sec. 2. Taxes levied upon real or personal property for state revenue shall not exceed four mills annually on each dollar of the assessed valuation thereof except for the support of the educational, penal and charitable institutions of the state, payment of the state debt and interest thereon; and the total annual tax levy upon such property for all state purposes exclusive of necessary levies for the state debt shall not exceed ten mills.

Sec. 3. The property of the United States, the state and all counties, towns and cities and school districts, and other municipal corporations, public libraries, community districts and all laterals thereof, all church property, all property used for educational or charitable purposes, all cemeteries not used or held for private or corporate profit, and all bonds of the state of New Mexico, and of the counties, municipalities and districts thereof shall be exempt from taxation.

Sec. 4. Any public officer making any profit out of public monies or using the same for any purpose not authorized by law, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be punished as provided by law and shall be disqualified to hold public office. All public monies not invested in interest bearing securities shall be deposited in national banks in this state or in banks or trust companies incorporated under the laws of the state and the interest derived therefrom shall be applied in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 5. The legislature may exempt from taxation property of each head of a family to the amount of two hundred dollars.

Sec. 6. Lands held in large tracts shall not be assessed for taxation at any lower value per acre than (than) lands of the same character or quality and similarly situated, held in smaller tracts. The plowing of land shall not be considered as adding value thereto for the purpose of taxation.

Sec. 7. No execution shall issue upon any judgment rendered against the board of county commissioners of any county, or against any incorporated city, town or village, school district or board of education, or against any officer of any county, incorporated city, town or village, school district or board of education, upon any judgment recovered against him in his official capacity and for which the county, incorporated city, town or village, school district or board of education, is liable, but the same shall be paid out of the proceeds of a tax levy as other liabilities of counties, incorporated cities, towns or villages, school districts or boards of education, and when so collected shall be paid by the county treasurer to the judgment creditor.

Proposing an amendment of (13) section two of article ten of the constitution of the state of New Mexico. (S. Sub. S. J. R. No. 19; Filed March 15, 1913).

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of New Mexico, That Section Two of Article Ten of the Constitution of the State of New Mexico be amended as to read as follows:

Article X.

Section 2. All county officers shall be elected for a term of two years, and after having served two consecutive terms, shall be ineligible to hold any county office for two years thereafter.

Proposing an amendment of (10) section one of article five of the constitution of the state of New Mexico. (S. J. R. No. 19; Filed March 17, 1913).

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of New Mexico, That Section One of Article Five of the Constitution of the State of New Mexico, be amended so as to read as follows:

Article V.

Section 1. The executive department shall consist of a governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state auditor, state treasurer,
